This, of course, will be when we are back on campus. I just want to offer a big shout-out to our amazing librarians who have helped me find excellent streaming videos to enhance my online teaching this semester. Bravol. Please have faculty report the incident to the Conduct office too will faculty promotions still go this semester. Bravol. Please have faculty report the incident to the Conduct office too will faculty promotions still go through for this year 2019/2020? Michael Lee sent out the dates to all faculty for Faculty 180 changes Tim concerned about the Final Exam for this semester. Will there be training specifically addressing how to conduct the Final Exam remotely? With regards to potential Zoom bombing: Do you have a recommendation for verifying student identity for a new class that meets this summer remotely (especially when that class starts)? Requiring students to use their cameras online is a great idea for each class, but my concern is verifying that person on the camera is the same student as who is enrolled in the class when you are meeting that student for the first time. Would requiring a student to upload his/her picture into Canvas and then verifying that against who is on the camera in a Zoom session be a possible solution? My thanks to all of you for your collaboration, leadership and support during this unprecidented time. Is there anythig in place to help adjunct faculty?
